

TAMARA

H1004809-PN

Harmonizing linear and organic shapes, the Tamara chandelier provides an artful update to a mid-century sputnik design. Cast from Remolino Blanco glass, the discs feature milky white swirls that gently diffuse light. Slender Aged Brass stems support the composition, providing a counterpoint to the softness of the rounded glass forms. Available with 6 or 9 lights, Tamara is a luminous conversation piece in a living or dining space.
